Message from the President

The employees of Dauphin County Library System are my heroes. They help county residents of all ages in innumerable ways every day, and they work their magic armed with knowledge and dedication to service rather than mythic superpowers or weaponry. Their heroic sidekicks – government leaders, corporate and foundation sponsors, individual donors, volunteers, trustees, Friends of the Library, taxpayers, and community partners – lend their support to maximize DCLS's impact on the educational, economic, and cultural health of Dauphin County.

In 2009, despite significant challenges, DCLS experienced growth in service and impact and expanded its reputation as a beacon of inspiration, knowledge, and enrichment in the region. Thanks to those DCLS heroes, we have seen immense increases in circulation of library materials, the launch of the CareerHelpPA service aiding job seekers, and groundbreaking for a new state-of-the-art library in Hummelstown.

Your commitment of financial support, time, and/or talents to DCLS is an investment in learning and inspiration, and that makes you a hero in our book.

Kathy A. Silks
President
DCLS Board of Trustees
2008 – 2009

Mission Statement

The Dauphin County Library System strengthens the community by promoting literacy and providing resources and services for information, education, and recreation.

Mission Moment

In response to the high demand for job-seeking assistance, DCLS began offering Career Help PA, a new program that offers adults, one-to-one help from certified tutors and career specialists online. Response from users was overwhelmingly positive, as this quote demonstrates:

“This service is outstanding!!! I am thankful that it is available and that it is free. The library system is amazing. Keep up the great work!!!”

As this user notes, Career Help PA is completely free for our community thanks to a grant from the Pennsylvania Department of Education's Office of Commonwealth Libraries.

Heroic Measures

2009 was a record-breaking year for borrowing at DCLS libraries and for answering your questions. As the economy faltered, many of you turned to the library to help with finding a job, getting school support, and enjoying no-cost family entertainment tied to learning.

1,114,970 Items Borrowed
(an all-time borrowing record and 10% increase over 2008)

101,167 Reference Questions Answered

And while you were being creative and using the library to leverage your budget, children were getting creative about keeping their reading skills sharp over the summer and avoiding the “summer slide” in learning that can occur when school is out of session:

6,088 Children registered for summer reading

Parents are children's first “heroes.” The DCLS Born to Read, the program that connects babies and their parents with books and encourages early literacy, has reached 4,737 babies and their parents since its inception. 2009 was a particularly successful year for the program:

Outreach Programs:
(programs offered at shelters, women’s health centers and other locations)

55 Programs attended by 264 Children and 571 Adults

In-Library Programs:

75 Programs attended by 956 Children and 840 Adults

Job seekers are among the many users of public computers at DCLS. Use of public computers, like library use in general, climbed significantly.

133 Public Use Computers  174,547 Public Computing Sessions

Heroic Efforts & History-Making Moments

Hummelstown Groundbreaking

On May 2, 2009, the “Connecting the Community in the Heart of Hummelstown” Capital Campaign Committee, library donors, local dignitaries and DCLS staff broke ground for the new William H. & Marion C. Alexander Family Library. Anticipated for many years, this new library will nearly quadruple the space of the current facility, offering three community meeting rooms, and 29 public computers. A true community effort, it is the result of an initial bequest, grants, funding from the Libraries are for LIFE Capital Campaign and a final heroic effort by local community leaders to raise the remaining $1.5 million needed to bring the library to life. Its grand opening is anticipated for July 2010.

Downtown Dedication

On September 16, 2009, the Harrisburg Downtown Library unveiled its new name, McCormick Riverfront Library, at a special ceremony to dedicate the newly renovated space. The original library in the DCLS system, this historic structure first opened January 1, 1914. It has undergone preservation and renovation both inside and out, including a restoration of the center portion of its original vaulted ceiling. The renovations earned DCLS an historic preservation award from the City of Harrisburg. Changes included the relocation of the portraits of early library leaders, including Sara Haldeman Haly and her father, Jacob Haldeman, Alice Eaton (the building’s first librarian) and Donald McCormick to the main library and community meeting room. The establishment of the Margaret Wilson Masters endowment fund to aid in the preservation and maintenance of this historic library was also announced. The stories of these library heroes serve to inspire all library visitors. Use of the library has increased dramatically since its renovation and it is again a community favorite, particularly busy over the lunch hour downtown.

East Shore Renovation

2009 also saw the start of much needed improvements at the East Shore Area Library in Colonial Park, the largest and busiest library in the system. When construction is complete in mid-2010, visitors will be able to enjoy more parking on the east side of the building, a more efficient floor plan, and a more comfortable and better lit space for all their lifelong learning activities.

Record Numbers Attend Service Excellence Awards Dinner

230 eager listeners came to hear Terry Gross, host of National Public Radio’s Fresh Air, at the 2009 DCLS Service Excellence Awards Dinner. This was the highest turnout ever for the dinner, which generated more than $15,000 to help provide library service in Dauphin County.
Super Happenings

Elizabethville Library Arts Series

Simple Gifts
The Simple Gifts trio, Linda Littleton, Rachel Hall and Karen Hirshon, combined tradition with innovation, playing an amazing array of instruments including two violins, concertina, mandolin, banjo, recorders, bowed psaltery, hammered dulcimer, baritone fiddle, guitar, piano, and percussion as one of the highlights of the Elizabethville Library Arts Series.

Joan Y. Leopold Children’s Book Week Celebration

Jackie Urbanovich
In Duck and Cover, the lovable Max demonstrates heroic qualities of his own when a desperate alligator shows up at his door looking for asylum. Max’s creator, children’s illustrator and author Jackie Urbanovich, was a hit as the headliner of the 2009 Joan Y. Leopold Children’s Book Week Celebration.

National Library Week 2009

Rebecca Flowers, NPR commentator and author of Nice to Come Home To appeared at DCLS libraries as part of National Library Week 2009, as did Linda Brain Beck, an expert on autism who offered advice to parents, caregivers and community members on better understanding the autism spectrum.

Award Winners

The following individuals and organizations were presented with Sara Haldeman Haly awards for their 2008 efforts.

Impact Award: Jeremiah “Jerry” Kling (posthumously), for his dedicated service to the “Connecting the Community in the Heart of Hummelstown” Capital Campaign, his support of library service in Hummelstown and his service to the entire community.

Person of the Year: Joe Bedard, for the thousands of free children's books he has put into the hands of area children via his Share Kids Books initiative, and his tireless support of literacy for our community.

Organization of the Year: Grantville Area Food Pantry, for recognizing that feeding the mind is as important as feeding the body and coordinating with local groups to collect and distribute donated books along with food items to the community.

Dottie & Henry Swartz Volunteer Excellence Award: To Cheryl Peters, for sharing a myriad of creative and organizational skills with the library, volunteering with enthusiasm, professionalism, warmth and humor.

Katherine M. Myers Distinguished Service Award: To Marjorie McKensie, for demonstrating leadership, determination, and creativity above and beyond the call of duty while the library she manages, McCormick Riverfront Library (formerly the Harrisburg Downtown Library), underwent extensive renovations.
Library Heroes

On behalf of all the children and adults who use the Dauphin County Library System, heartfelt thanks to all of you who stepped up to “Be a Hero” by donating to the 2009 Annual Fund Drive, supported the 2009 Spring Book Drive, helped to build the new library in Hummelstown, helped fund the summer reading program, sponsored the service excellence awards dinner, or supported library service in other ways.
