HOW TO REGISTER

Most events with The Library require registration, which is noted in their descriptions. Visit dcls.org/events, or call 717-234-4961 and choose option 6 to register. Once you're registered, you'll receive a confirmation email.

For most recurring programs, register once and you're registered for all events following.

For virtual programs, please be sure to include your email address for a library employee to contact you with more information and any links you need to join. If you registered for a recurring virtual program, you'll be contacted weekly with a link to the program.

For all programs, please be sure to include your phone number and/or email address when registering so that The Library can contact you if a program is canceled or changed.

We respect your privacy

The Library sometimes photographs, records, or takes screenshots at events and programs for publicity purposes. If you'd prefer that you or your children not appear in any photos, videos, or screenshots taken by The Library, please let the leader know prior to the event.

Family Programs

The Year of Ghibli

For families and people of all ages

ESA: Sundays, January 14, 28, February 11, 25, and March 10, 24 at 2:30 pm

Join us throughout 2024 as we celebrate some of Studio Ghibli's most famous films. Each month will feature a different film by the Japanese production company, Studio Ghibli. All are welcome to join us. Some may not be suitable for very young children. Ratings are noted based on the Motion Picture Association of America (MPAA).

January: My Neighbor Totoro (rated G)

February: Whisper of the Heart (rated G)

March: The Cat Returns (rated G)

About 1.5 - 2 hours. Registration is required and limited.

Stories at Sunset

For families with children of all ages

ESA: Tuesdays, January 16, February 13, and March 12 at 6:00 pm

MOM: Tuesdays, January 16, February 20, and March 19 at 5:30 pm

Looking for a way for the whole family to get in on The Library fun? Try our evening storytime! Once per month, children of all ages will engage in books, songs, movement, fingerplays, rhymes, and storytelling while adults learn how to promote early literacy skills at home. This program is designed for newborns to six-year-olds, but siblings and grownups will also enjoy participating.

30 – 45 minutes. Registration is required and limited. 🔄

Paws with a Cause

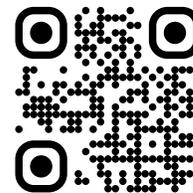

For families with children ages 3+ years

ESA: Monday, February 12 at 6:00 pm

AFL: Wednesday, February 21 at 6:00 pm

EV: Wednesday February 28 at 5:30 pm

Join us as we help our four-legged friends who are waiting for forever homes! Stop by The Library to make a blanket, water bottle crinkle toy, and a braided tug toy to give to a local shelter! Families can also bring items to donate directly to a shelter. The shelters we are supporting are the Humane Society of Harrisburg, Sepranza Animal Rescue Mechanicsburg, and Homeward Bound. Learn what these shelters need by scanning the code below. Paws 2 Read volunteer teams may be present when possible, so dogs could be on site. 45 minutes. Registration is required and limited.

Sensory Storytime

For ages 3 – 7 years

AFL: Saturdays, January 6, February 3, and March 2 at 10:30 am

Sensory Storytime is intended for children with sensory and communications challenges. Sensory storytime is an inclusive space where participants refine their communication and social skills through books, crafts, and hands-on, sometimes messy, activities. We welcome children to get involved with storytelling while encouraging them to engage in as little or as much stimulation as desired.

30 – 45 minutes. Registration is required and limited. 🔄

Family Programs

Support Our Pollinators!

For families with children of all ages

MOM: Monday, March 25 at 10:30 am

EV: Monday, March 25 at 4:30 pm

Learn about our local pollinators featuring bees, bats, hummingbirds, beetles, dragonflies and butterflies. These important critters help pollinate our orchards, backyard gardens, and our rain forests.

How do we build a habitat to help our pollinators? What time of year should we mow our fields that is most beneficial to pollinators? What about all those dandelions that first appear in the spring? Learn about it, and more with this fun, educational program!

1 hour. Registration is required and limited.

Our Amazing Butterflies!

For families with children of all ages

KL: Monday, March 25 at 1:30 pm

Audiences will see wonderful slides of our local butterflies presented by Jerry Schneider, creator of the award-winning Butterfly Game. Audiences will answer questions. What is a good butterfly habitat? How can we attract more butterflies into our community? When, how, and why do monarch butterflies go to Mexico? In addition to answering these questions, we will learn interesting butterfly characteristics. (Did you know that butterflies taste with their feet?)

Jerry brings displays of butterflies and moths, cocoons, and sometimes caterpillars. The second half of the program is a wonderful tee shirt craft. Tee shirt and craft supplies will be provided.

1 hour. Registration is required and limited.

School Age Programs

Invisible Beauty Documentary Screening

For ages 18+ years

MOM: Tuesday, March 12 at 6:00 pm

The essential memoir of fashion pioneer Bethann Hardison, Invisible Beauty shines a spotlight on one of the fashion industry's most influential icons. As a pioneering Black model, modeling agent and entrepreneur, Hardison has pushed the boundaries of fashion culture and has been at the forefront of progress throughout her career. In her lifetime, the singular and unapologetic industry icon has seen the pendulum swing toward and away from the Black model. At every setback, she spoke up and rallied her colleagues and clients in the industry to advance change. Now in her 70s, the Brooklyn native is writing her memoir and taking stock of her own legacy at a moment when the fashion industry is shaken by a racial reckoning.

2.5 hours. Registration is required.

Winter Reading Challenge

December 1, 2023 to February 29, 2024

Cozy up on the couch and read along with The Library this winter. Earn points by logging your reading, writing reviews, and creating picture reviews. Points allow you to choose your own winter reading adventure. Complete the challenge to earn a prize!

Kids and teens 18 and under

Earn 100 points to complete the program!

For the 5 and under crowd, we recommend logging the number of books read. Sign up for both the Winter Reading Challenge and 1000 Books Before Kindergarten, and make your reading count double. Kids and teens ages 6 to 18, log your reading by either minutes or books, and write reviews to build up your points.

Adults

Earn 30 points to complete the program!

Adults ages 18+, your goal is to earn 30 points. We recommend adults log their reading by books. One book and one review per month will earn you all the points you need to complete the challenge.

Everyone

Register and log however works for you:

- Go to dcls.org/wrc and either sign back into your Beanstack account or create one for the first time.
- Download the Beanstack Tracker app (available for iOS and Android; just search for "Beanstack Tracker") and either sign back into your Beanstack account or create one for the first time.
- Stop by any library location to register!

1000 Books Before Kindergarten

For ages 0–5 years

The idea is simple: build a daily reading habit with your child, log your reading, and earn prizes! Register your infant, toddler, or preschooler any time before they start kindergarten and start reading. Log the books you read. What counts towards your reading? EVERYTHING! You can read the same book 1000 times, or you can read 1000 different books. You can hear books at The Library's storytimes and they count. An older sibling or grandparent can read, and it still counts!

Read three books a day and you'll be done in less than a year! Earn a prize book at 100 books, 500 books, and 1000 books, and sign our wall of readers at your library every time you hit a 100-book milestone.

Register today on Beanstack at dcls.beanstack.org. Pick up a paper log at any library, or log your reading online with the Beanstack Tracker app.

Black History Month Reading Challenge

For all ages

February 1 through February 29

How many books can you read by Black authors in February? Log along with The Library and find out! Complete 3 badges by either reading, completing activities, or a combination of both to win a free book. Register on Beanstack at dcls.beanstack.org, and log your reading online or with the Beanstack Tracker app.

LIMELIGHT ON LOCAL ARTISTS

January – March Exhibition

Reshmi Khatun

Spero Lappas

Meet & Greet Artist Reception

For all ages

ESA: Saturday, January 13 at 2:00 pm

In partnership with the Lower Paxton Township Arts Council, we invite you to The Library to meet Reshmi Khatun and Spero Lappas, two local artists whose work will be on display and in the limelight this winter! Light refreshments will be served, as well as alcoholic beverages for people ages 21+ years.

2 hours. Registration is not required.

Reshmi Khatun

Hello this is Reshmi. I consider myself an artist and I do art out of my passion. It's something that comes out of me naturally. I always dreamt of being an artist, but I started doing art extensively only after getting married and upon following my husband's encouragement to follow my dream. I recently relocated from Austin, TX to the Lower Paxton area with my husband for his new job. It was a big move for us but now that we have settled down in the area, I want to be part of this great community and bring to the table my passion.

You will see some of my artwork hanging on the walls of the Harrisburg Midtown Arts Center (HMAC), at the Fall Membership Exhibition at the Art Association of Harrisburg and the Nyeusi Art Gallery near downtown Harrisburg. I am also looking forward to exhibiting my work at the Yellow Bird Café (downtown Harrisburg) beginning March 15, 2024.

Thanks to Lower Paxton Township Arts Council and the East Shore Area Library for giving me yet another great opportunity to exhibit my work.

Spero Lappas

Dr. Spero T. Lappas, is a prize-winning photographer whose work has appeared in solo exhibitions at the WITF Public Media Center, LSJ Studio, the Dauphin County Courthouse, Reservoir Mansion, Gamut Theatre, Penn State Harrisburg, Harrisburg Magazine and is currently in numerous personal and corporate collections.

A world traveler, he takes inspiration from the exotic and the mundane and has created photographic studies of dozens of urban, archeological, and natural locations on four continents.

He is the best-selling author of Conquer Life's Frontiers, The Seventh Name of Happiness, and New Tricks for Old Dogs. His first legal thriller, The Widow on the Ledge, is scheduled for an early 2024 publication. The judges at Writer's Digest Magazine have praised his writing as "gorgeous," "beautiful," and "elevated."

He is a tournament Scrabble champion and a former, nationally ranked, three-weapon fencer. Most importantly, he is a father, father-in-law, and grandfather.

Dr. Lappas lives in Lower Paxton Township in a house with a dog and ten thousand books.

Artwork on display is available for purchase.
Sales will occur between the seller and buyer.
