

2026 Summer Reading Challenge Adventure Quest

- o Some researchers have wandered into the library and misplaced their notes! Help them by uncovering their missing data and learn some fun facts along the way.
- o Find these 10 cutouts and write down the highlighted word listed with them on the lines below. Once completed, hand it to a librarian for a prize! Mark this activity as complete in Beanstack to gain points towards the Summer Reading Challenge. Either this scavenger hunt or the puzzle on the reverse side can be completed to gain points. Both do not need to be completed to earn a prize.

1

2

3

4

5

6

7

8

9

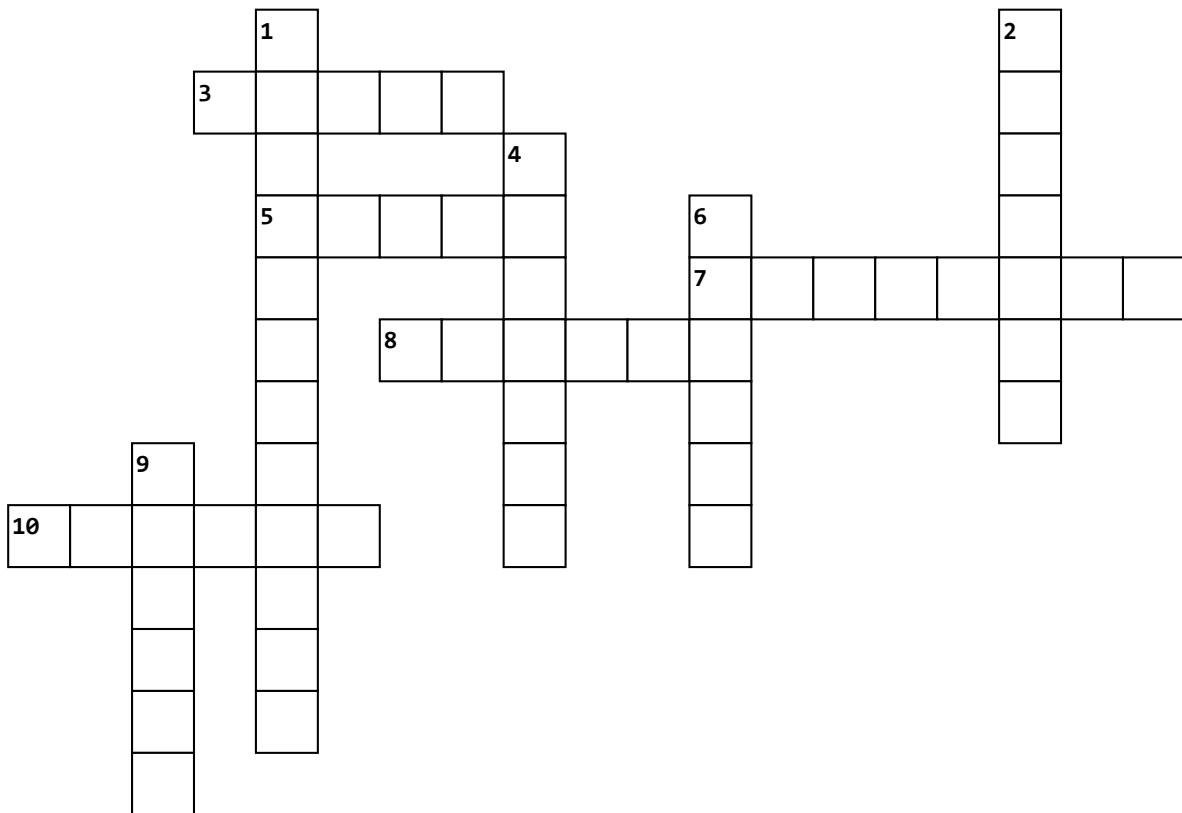

10

2026 Summer Reading Challenge Adventure Quest

Complete this puzzle or the scavenger hunt on the reverse side to gain points towards the Summer Reading Challenge. Hand it in to library staff to earn a prize! Mark this activity as complete in Beanstack to gain points towards the Summer Reading Challenge.

Across

3. Spelunking is the exploration of _____.
5. Considered a modern-day classic, "The City of _____" by Jeanne DuPrau tells the story of two kids who venture out from an underground city to try and save it.
7. Evidence suggests that this object may have caused the dinosaurs to become extinct.
8. The preserved, petrified remains or imprint of an organism.
10. Hang Son Doong is considered the largest cave in the world and has its own ecosystem, rainforest, and river. It also contains a unique rock formation, round stones known as cave _____.

Down

1. The scientific study of fossils.
2. The hardest natural substance on earth that forms when put through tremendous pressure and temperature underground.
4. Archeologists use a wide variety of tools when excavating, including trowels, spoons, and _____.
6. The stegosaurus has the smallest brain of any known dinosaur. What tree nut is its size compared to?
9. T-rex teeth have been compared in size and shape to what fruit?